Consolidation of Courts Killed by Board, 3-2

Down and out on a 3-2 count are all plans for consolidation of Contra Costa County's four municipal courts and 13 judicial courts.

County Supervisor James Kenny of Richmond moved, Supervisor Mel Nielsen of Lafayette seconded and Supervisor Joe Silva of Brentwood voted for denial of at least four consolidation proposals Tuesday during a session at the Hall of Records.

Supervisors Thomas Coll of Concord and Edmund Linscheid of Pittsburg both voted to have the question submitted to a vote of the people.

"IT'S TOO complicated for the people. We are their elected representatives, and I think we should vote right now," said Kenny.

Nielsen's support of the motion to deny came after fervent testimony by union representatives, members of the State Judges, Marshals and Constables Association.

The impersonality of the consolidated courts and the greater distance of travel for interested parties were cited by opponents, including George Kelly of Martinez, representing Local 5 of the Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers Union; Tsar Calfee, a Richmond attorney and son of Richmond Municipal Judge David Calfee, and Judge Sam Hall of Martinez.

County Administrator J. P. McBrien, who said his proposal for unification into a single municipal court district with six judges would save up to $240,000 per year, got only limited support at the hearing.

BACKERS were representatives of the Contra Costa Taxpayers Association, the West

Contra Costa and East Contra Costa Taxpayers Committees.

McBrien has said his plan also has the support of area chambers of commerce.

The question of consolidating courts arose more than a year ago when State Chief Justice Phil Gibson, chairman of the State Judicial Council, suggested the county courts be consolidated into three municipal courts and three judicial courts.

Gibson said the plan would save $150,000 per year.

McBrien then suggested the more complete consolidation, estimating savings at $240,000 per year.

The Contra Costa Bar Association suggested the system be combined into three municipal courts with nine judges.

Judge Calfee suggested a plan much like Gibson's.

Phone Strike Over; Calls Are Speeded

The strike against the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, the Western Electric and American Telephone and Telegraph Companies was settled Tuesday, and junior phone executives happily relinquished the switchboards.

The strike was called after a vote by the Oakland Local 9415 of the Communication Workers of America, after a dispute over the suspension of some 500 Western Electric employees in San Leandro.

The suspension was the result of a demonstration walkout by the San Leandro workers in sympathy with workers involved in a dispute in an Oakland telephone office.

It's Been Raining In Case You've Been Busy Lately

In case you haven't realized it, November was a wet month.

This is what EBMUD's hydrographic section called it after heavy rains swamped the Bay Area this week.

In the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. yesterday 1½ inches of rain had been recorded at the San Pablo reservoir.

In the 48-hour period ending at the same time, 2.02 inches of rainfall was recorded.

The normal rainfall for the entire month of November is 2.52 inches.

During November, 1961, the area received 3.84 inches, well over the average fall.

Even with this unusually heavy amount of rain, the season total still lags behind last year's figure.

Last year, the season rainfall to this date (figured from July 1) was 4.53. So far this season, the area has received 4.39. Average season rainfall for this time of year is 4.17, a figure already exceeded.

The heavy rain in the last two days was blamed for at least one traffic snarl.

Rocks and earth slid down onto the Orinda-Oakland freeway east of the Caldecott Tunnel and caused a chain-reaction collision involving six cars Wednesday.

Village Stores Open Evenings

Five Orinda Village Shopping Center stores announce they will be open until 9 p.m. for Christmas shoppers' convenience Thursdays, December 7 and 14 and each weekday evening beginning December 18.

Stores making the announcement are: Ogden's, Village Square Casuals, Macil's of Orinda, Edy's Character Candies and Village Shoe Shop.

Ambulance Firm Owner Offers Service Remedy

By DICK OSBORN

What kind of ambulance service does Central Contra Costa County have, and what can be done to improve it?

Bill Pomeroy, owner of the Walnut Creek Ambulance Service, answered these questions this week. (See editorial, front, second section.)

Right now, Pomeroy operates the only ambulance service to serve residents of Orinda, Lafayette, Moraga, Walnut Creek, Alamo, Danville, and parts of Pleasant Hill.

There are two other firms in Concord and one in Martinez. Pomeroy has two ambulances, but only has a crew for one.

"WE AVERAGE three and a half to four calls a day," said Pomeroy. "Some days we get five or six calls—others none."

What happens when Pomeroy gets two emergencies at once?

"Well, just last week we got a call in Orinda," he said. "I hadn't been gone 10 minutes before we got another call for San Ramon. I had two men out on the Orinda call and was alone in the office. I couldn't take the second ambulance by myself."

You have to have a driver, and you have to have somebody in back with the patient.

"So, I did what we always do in this situation. I relayed the call to a Concord ambulance firm. We have a mutual aid agreement, just like the fire departments."

"If they get swamped, they call me. If I need extra help, I call them," he said.

Pomeroy indicated that this situation occurs about once a month.

WHAT ARE the possibilities of establishing another ambulance in the Lafayette-Orinda area, or of another firm starting operations in this area?

"Another ambulance operator tried to get established here a few years ago," said Pomeroy. "but he couldn't make it go. There simply isn't enough business to support two firms. In fact, there isn't business to support another full time crew for my second ambulance. My big ambulance represents a $16,000 investment. With the present volume of business, I can't afford to staff a second ambulance and locate it in Lafayette, which would be the ideal place. I would simply be operating two ambulances and paying two crews, while operating with the same volume."

Pomeroy did suggest a method whereby the area could get improved ambulance service.

"I WOULD be glad to supply the second ambulance and operate it from Lafayette if somebody else would pay a man to staff it. For example, the fire districts in the area which I serve (Lafayette, Orinda, the Moraga portion of the Eastern Fire District and Central) could work out a system whereby they paid for one full time man and would offer a second man to go along with the ambulance when it was out on a call," said Pomeroy.

"It would cost about $400 to $450 per month to hire a driver. This would add very little to the tax rate if divided up among the fire districts. The ambulance driver would be on call 24 hours per day. At night, he could either swing by a fire house, or a man could come to him to go out on the call."

IF THE FIRE districts could help defray the cost of one more man we could do something," Pomeroy said.

When asked about the problem of multiple injuries in a bad highway accident or other disaster Pomeroy said:

"My ambulance will hold six people—three stretcher cases and three sitting up. We have a radio and try to find out from the highway patrol or other agencies how many injured there are. If we know there more than we can handle, then we immediately place a call for a second ambulance."

"We usually get there first and provide first aid until the second ambulance arrives," he said.

Where's the Fire?

Orinda Fire Department responded to the following calls this week:

THURSDAY — 11:05 a.m., first aid, Las Pedros.

FRIDAY — 3:45 p.m., resuscitation call, in Orinda Village.

SATURDAY — 10:55 a.m. resuscitation call, Sleep Hollow Lane.

SUNDAY — 4:45 p.m., dryer fire, Via Floreado.

MONDAY — 9:13 a.m., lockout on La Espiral and 1:49 p.m., dryer fire on Albo Court.

TUESDAY — 11:11 a.m., structural fire on Camino Pablo, extent of damage is still under investigation.

WEDNESDAY — 5:43 p.m., investigation on Springhill Road.

One of three men re-elected to serve as vice presidents, Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America, is Joseph DeMaria of 16 Southwood Drive.

Acalanes Board Urges Total Unification

Acalanes Union High School District trustees urged "horizontal" unification of the Acalanes Union School District and each of the elementary districts within the high school district's boundaries at last night's County Committee on School District Reorganization meeting.

The high school board based its decision on the recommendation given "horizontal" unification by the Odell Report study group.

HIGH SCHOOL trustees also recommended that the "horizontal" unification proposal be area. The high school board submitted to the voters of the action is based on the state requirement that some form of unification must be planned by 1963.

The high school board voted unanimously for "horizontal" unification and presentation of "horizontal" unification plans to Acalanes District area voters on the basis that:

"Four and one half years have been spent by local, county and professional study groups on the unification problem. In order to utilize the best professional advice available, the county has spent $9000 for an expert study of the area and its unification potential."

THE EXPERT STUDY, the Odell Report compiled by Stanford consultants in school organization and education, culminates many months of county and local board study and discussion with an authoritative recommendation that "horizontal" unification is preferential to other forms of district consolidation, both from the standpoint of effective organization and maximum educational efficiency.

"With the county having spent a considerable sum to acquire expert opinion, with that professional expert opinion now in the form of a recommendation, we high school trustees feel an obligation to approve the best considered unification plan yet submitted, and furthermore an obligation to give voters within the areas concerned a chance to consider the recommendation of this study."

School Merger Discussed

The County Committee on School District Reorganization met last night at Acalanes High School to accept or reject the Odell Report.

The action was taken after The Sun went press.

The Odell Report recommended total unification of the Acalanes High School District with the elementary school districts lying within its boundaries.

These include: Lafayette, Orinda, Walnut Creek, Moraga and Canyon.

It is the task of the county committee to arrive at a unification plan covering each district in the county. The 11 man committee is augmented by one member from each school board concerned—in this case six, one from each elementary school district and one member of the high school district board.

Each elementary school district has already come out in favor of some form of unification other than that recommended by the Odell Report, if unification must be effected at all.

Only the Acalanes High School Board has accepted the Odell Report. (See separate story, this issue.)

The meeting started at 8 p.m. at the Acalanes High School cafeteria.

Alcoholism Is Topic Next Sunday

The director of the Henry Ohl-off House, San Francisco's Episcopal home for alcoholic men, will speak Sunday at 2 p.m. at the PG&E building, 1535 Bonanza Street, Walnut Creek.

Board Favors Plan "F"; Names "D" Alternative

Rejection of the Odell Report which recommends total unification was the unanimous opinion of the Orinda Union School District board of trustees Wednesday night at Pine Grove School.

The special meeting was called to discuss the latest developments of the unification problem and to instruct the board's representative how to vote on the subject of unification at the meeting of the augmented committee held at Acalanes High School last night.

Orinda trustees passed a resolution Wednesday night to reject the Odell Report (horizontal or total unification) and recommended as an alternative that their delegate to the augmented committee recommend plan "F."

SUPERINTENDENT Joseph Sheaff told The Sun the board agreed on "F" as an alternative because it appeared that this plan with some amendments is the one favored by the Walnut Creek district. Basically, plan "F" would result in two unified districts composed of all the currently existing districts.

"The trustees, while they prefer the status quo, were making an effort to select a plan which all the districts could find acceptable in lieu of total unification," Sheaff commented.

Plan "D" is the Orinda board's selection as an alternative to "F." Plan "D" is favored by the trustees for it recommends the creation of three districts, in which Orinda would remain essentially as it now is, but would be unified with the inclusion of Miramonte High School.

Gordon Ainsworth, chairman of the Orinda board, represented the board at the meeting of the augmented committee held last night after The Sun went to press.

PRIOR TO the board's special meeting Wednesday night, trustees of the Orinda board spoke before many parent groups in Orinda and served on panels before discussion groups of other districts in an effort to determine the will of the people regarding unification.

Sheaff stated that the board believed, after these many discussions, that the people did not object to unifying as such, but were opposed to horizontal or total unification.

Prior to the special meeting Wednesday, the administrative staff submitted a lengthy report to the board in which they recommended unification of Orinda alone.

Semi-Finalists Named for Foreign Study

Mrs. W. H. Leucker, chairman of the Americans Abroad Committee of the Orinda Chapter of the American Field Service has announced that semi-finalists have been chosen for the school program next year.

They are: Ken White, Ken Wagner, Steve Cantrill and Bonnie Winters.

In order to qualify for the school program, according to Mrs. Leucker, an applicant is judged for his scholastic as well as his leadership ability.

Bonnie Winters has recently been chosen to attend the Governor's Conference on Youth. Last year she was a delegate to "Young Judea" a New York camp where she was an energetic leader.

Ken White has been president of the German Club. Ken Wagner is a Sea Scout. Steve Cantrill is an Eagle Scout and is on the varsity wrestling team. All four have many distinguishing qualities, according to Mrs. Leucker.

Chosen from 30 applicants, the names of the semi-finalists will be sent to the New York offices of the American Field Service where one or two will be selected to go abroad for part or all of their senior year to represent Miramonte High School in home European equivalent.

County to Act Tuesday On Subdivision Request

Contra Costa County Planning Commission members Tuesday will hear the request of Bryan & Murphy, builders, to construct a subdivision of 200 lots on 185 acres of property known as "Orinda North" or Altairinda.

The hearing has twice been delayed, once at the request of the Orinda Association's planning committee and once at the request of the builders.

UNANIMOUS opposition to the proposed subdivision has been expressed by the Orinda Association, Hacienda Home Owners Association and other groups and individuals in Orinda.

The builders are asking permission to construct the subdivision with 67 lots of less than one-half acre and some even smaller.

Those opposed to the subdivision have objected to the small lots, the disturbance of the natural contours of the land, and

Thinking Caps On! It's Man of Year Time

It's that time of year again. Time for our community to choose a resident—man or woman—whom it feels has done an outstanding job in community betterment.

Each year The Sun sponsors a Man of the Year award. The man, or woman, to be honored, is chosen by a committee of community-conscious residents to receive the award.

SO THIS IS the time for each of us to consider the many outstanding men and women who have given their time and talents during the past year for the betterment of our community.

The choice is never easy, because of the many civic-minded people who have made our area what it is. But the committee's job is made easier by recommendations from you.

If you have a person to nominate for the award, write your nominations to The Sun, and they will be forwarded to the committee.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS names will be announced shortly. The man, or woman, to be honored will be announced in the December 29 issue of The Sun. And he will be honored at a civic function later.

Judge Orders Property Audit

A court order to determine extent of community property was obtained for Mrs. Thelma Patterson of 128 Camino Sobrante by her attorney as a part of a divorce action against Russell C. Patterson heard by Superior Judge Thomas F. Fraga Tuesday in Martinez.

The order directs Patterson, a Berkeley auto sales operator, to pay $500 toward employment of a certified public accountant to determine community property in connection with his divorce suit.

Patterson alleges in the suit he filed last July 3 that there is no community property.

But the wife described it as the $55,000 Orinda family home, the auto leasing business known as Pacific Coast Leasing, 2254 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, valued at $250,000; an unimproved lot at Channing Way and Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, valued at $100,000; property at Fort Collins, Colorado, and life insurance policies.

Mrs. Patterson also moved for permission to file an amended cross-complaint and Judge Fraga today took the matter under submission for a decision December 11. Both parties charge cruelty in their court actions.

She is now receiving $750 monthly and support for their two children, who are seven and five.

Mrs. Patterson is seeking $1500-a-month support and $7500 fees for her attorney.

The husband also is asking for custody of the children. He is represented by attorneys George R. Gordon and E. Conrad Correnna.

The couple wed in Reno on July 3, 1952, and separated last April 28, according to the complaint.

350 Hear Plan For Sun Jubilee Trip to Europe

Interest ran high at the Sun Evening of Travel November 15 at Acalanes High School when more than 350 students of the Diablo Valley area heard about the Jubilee Trip to Europe planned for this summer.

Herman Silverman, Sun publisher, opened the meeting, saying that he had long wanted to do something of unique interest to commemorate the 25th Anniversary of The Sun.

The Jubilee trip, he said, will enable people from this area to see Europe comfortably and without undue expense.

During the Evening of Travel entertainers Art and Jo Bray-fogle took their audience for a musical trip around the world. Guests were shown movies of Rome, which were highlighted by specially composed background music.

Participants in the Jubilee Trip to Europe will leave San Francisco June 14.

Retarded Classes Grow

Special classes for 834 mentally retarded students, 120 of whom are severely mentally retarded, are being conducted by county schools or County Superintendent Floyd Marchus.

Nearly 100 of the severely mentally retarded are enrolled in classes operated by the county superintendent's office.

This, said Dr. Marchus, is because the relatively small numbers in which they are found in the individual school districts make area-wide classes desirable.

Mt. Diablo Unified District alone has classes for the severely retarded, of whom 23 are enrolled in two classes.

Contra Costa County Board of Education has learned from the program's coordinator, Lorene Pitts, that the county office is able for the first time to accommodate all severely mentally retarded children eligible to enter the program.

Previously, children were placed on waiting lists until vacancies occurred.

Training centers for severely mentally retarded are maintained as follows: Jefferson School at Richmond, enrolling 64 children in six classes; Valley School at Alamo, 12 children in one class; and Lone Tree School near Brentwood, 21 children in two classes.

Class size for the severely mentally retarded is restricted by state law to 12. Eighteen is the maximum per class for the educable retarded.

Dr. Marchus' office provides special training of the latter type for 26 children from East Contra Costa County communities at Hazel Woolley School, Knightsen, and 12 children of the Rodeo area.

At the elementary level, nine districts operate 30 classes for 430 educable retarded.

Armed Robbery, Theft of Stocks Top Crime List

A case of armed robbery plus five burglaries were reported to sheriff's deputies at the Lafayette substation this week.

Two young bandits took $65 from a Danville service station early Saturday morning, according to the deputies' report.

Owner-operator John Truman Wolfe, 152 La Cuesta Drive, Danville, said two young men wearing handkerchiefs over their faces and hats entered the station office, 300 Hartz, at approximately 3:06 a.m.

One of the men leveled an old, rusty revolver on Wolfe as he announced the "stickup." Wolfe told deputies that he grabbed a wrench and managed to hit the gunman in the arm before the two wrestled him to the floor.

The 73-year-old Wolfe said he was held by one of the bandits while the other one went through the cash register.

AFTER taking approximately $65-$67 in bills and change, the two fled down a nearby side street.

Wolfe said his glasses were knocked off during the scuffle and said he could not identify them. However, he told deputies that the youths were approximately 19-20 years old, but because of their makeups and without glasses he said it would be hard to really identify their faces.

Armin C. Bolte of 1710 Magnolia Way, Walnut Creek, reported the theft of 250 shares of stock worth $3252 this week.

His wife told deputies that she placed the stocks on a dresser after they were purchased three weeks ago.

She discovered they were missing when she went to put them in a safe deposit box over the weekend.

Thomas W. Potter of 5 Scenic Court, Orinda, reported this week that his wife's $700 racoon coat was missing.

THE FAMILY was away during the latter part of July and first part of August, and Potter thinks it was taken during that time.

He told deputies that his wife did not miss it until Saturday. Kenneth Ehlers of 3167 Stanley Blvd., Lafayette, reported to deputies that his garage had been entered Saturday night.

Ehlers discovered the entry when he observed some cabinet doors open. However, only one can of paint was missing, according to Ehlers, although he had more than $1000 worth of tools in the garage.

WARREN Bethards of 119 Maxine Drive, Gregory Gardens, Pleasant Hill, had a .22 revolver pistol taken from his home Sunday afternoon, deputies said.

Smog Control Tax Hike to Get Study

A proposed six mill tax rate increase for smog control will receive more study before the Contra Costa County supervisors approve or disapprove.

The tax rate increase for a new total of 1.6 cents per $100 was favored by Supervisor James Kenny, who is a director in the Bay Area Air Pollution Control District.

Kenny said Governor Edmund G. Brown has been asked to place the matter on "special call" at the next state legislative session.

Affected would be six Bay Area counties, including Contra Costa.

Rape, Kidnap Charges Due In Holdup Case

Rape and kidnap charges will be filed against Thomas Norman Lindsay, 27, suspected of holding up the Orinda Central Valley National Bank and the Walnut Creek First Savings and Loan Association, according to Sheriff Earl Whitmore of San Mateo County.

Whitmore said Lindsay has been identified by four women, three of whom said Lindsay raped them, and the fourth claiming Lindsay raped her 20-year-old daughter in the mother's presence.

Lindsay was taken into custody by Federal Bureau of Investigation agents November 17 in a Redwood City card room.

Arrested with him was a 20-year-old San Leandro girl who officers said had a revolver concealed in the glove compartment of her car.

The women Sheriff Whitmore said identified Lindsay included a 33-year-old Walnut Creek woman who said she caught the suspect burglarizing her home, an 18-year-old Woodside girl who suffered knife cuts on her face, and another Woodside woman who said she was attacked after her boy friend had been locked in the trunk of his car.

Whitmore said officers are still looking for the responsible person in the rape of a 12-year-old girl in San Mateo County last September, and Lindsay has been questioned about this.

Lindsay is suspected of being the "brown-box bandit" who held up the Orinda Central Valley Bank November 9, escaping with more than $3000 in a brown box.

Thoughts Turn to Junior Prom and Holiday Time

November 27 was really Blue Monday for Miramonte students after such a short, but sweet Thanksgiving vacation. Don't worry though, it's only two more weeks until the Junior Prom and Christmas vacation!!!!

The theme of this year's prom is Japanese. The juniors absolutely refuse to give anyone information, mainly because they're sworn to secrecy. According to Mimi Loomis, the Matadors can look forward to a fabulous prom, on which the junior class has worked very hard. By the way, Cindy Gravelle, Paul Locklin, and Scott Huntley went to get the 11 foot high Buddha for the dance last weekend.

THE SENIOR Assembly with the theme of San Francisco is going to be hard to beat this year, but the freshmen and sophomores are really going to try. Judging by the screams of laughter and tremendous applause, we feel that John Calderwood's take-off on Victor Borge stole the show.

Twelve senior girls, or were they devils, created a mysterious effect with phosphorescent ears, hands, tails, feet, and pitch forks when the lights dimmed. A big surprise was in store for everyone when the seniors participating trooped up the aisles for the finale to the tune of "San Francisco, Here We Come."

The first night of the vacation a homecoming dinner was held for Bob Merriam and some of his friends. Those attending were Rick, Bob's brother, and Toni Ayres, Sue Natress and Tom Medsky, Bob's cousin, Charlie Blue, in an army helmet, and Barb Smith, Sherry Odenthal and Pat Gilmore.

Several senior girls were seen sobbing through Susan Slade that same night. One group, consisting of Bonnie Kent, Wendy Wilcox, Kathy Beoncini, and Sue Hancock, went to visit Pete Lamb afterwards, while his parents were having a party. Pete will be back at school next semester. Pat Kelly, Linner Trefts, and Linda Sears went to see Breakfast at Tiffany's after they enjoyed Susan Slade.

Paul McChesney and Carolyn Coburn were in the minority... they sat through the second movie, a poorly-dubbed French movie with a hole burned in the center of the film.

OVER THE holidays Clint and Grigg DeWitt flew down to New Mexico. On the way they spent one night in Palm Springs. What a life!

Thanksgiving night, needless to say, most Orinda teens spent the night quite miserably with their bottles of Alka Seltzer. It's a mighty good thing that Thanksgiving comes but once a year.

The last guest speaker in American Problems certainly put stars in the eyes of the senior girls.

STEVE WILLIAMS, Tom Gaffaney, Brad Harlan, Paul McChesney, Steve Miller, and Ron Parks made a fast recovery from Thursday and went skiing in the Sierras.

Enjoying the spirit and especially Ella Fitzgerald at the Cal Rally Friday night were Bonnie Kent and Bob Morris, Nancy Goebel and Steve Rudolph, Bonnie Henning and John Banks, Tara Doty, and Iris Scott.

Elvis Presley in Blue Hawaii entertained Pam Pearson, John Reilly, Jane White, and Dave Parish. Bob Pothier, Sharon Nielson, Wendy Wilcox, and Dick Miller went to the Paramount to see Bachelor in Paradise Saturday night.

Many of last year's grads were seen visiting good old Orinda over the vacation. Some of them were Mary Moorehead, Marge Williams, Bonnie McClaverty, Jo-an Hall, Andy deGrassi, Johnny Walker, Pam Dermit, Pete Yeddida, Randy Thaman, Phil Stevens, Pete Read (wonder why a certain Carol Goldsmith was so happy?), Connie Cook, Jan Miller, Karen Weatherbe, and Bill Kent.

ALTHOUGH rain was falling in buckets Saturday afternoon many Miramonteans went to the Cal-Stanford game in Palo Alto. Among the many were Linnet Trefts, Steve Miller, Dwight Thompson, Mary Baker, Robbie Spott, Rick and Holly Borden, Roxie Smith, bobbie Williams, and Christie Bickerstaff.

A surprise going-away party was given for Jerry Hopkins

Commuters Get Added Bus Service

An additional bus has been added to the commuter service for Orinda, Lafayette and Walnut Creek, according to an announcement made by Tom Whitten, president of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association.

Whitten received word from the Public Utilities Commission last week that starting November 29 and continuing daily thereafter except Sundays and holidays, the additional bus will leave Walnut Creek at 7:10 a.m., arrive in Lafayette at 7:21, Orinda 7:28 reaching Berkeley at 7:57 a.m.

Returning, one bus will leave Berkeley at 4:45 p.m. for Walnut Creek, and the other will leave at 5:40 p.m. at his home by a mass of juniors Saturday night. The Hopkins family is moving to Carmel and Jerry started going to Robert Louis Stevenson last Monday. Those attending the party were Wendy Minor, Byrname Thraillkill, Gary Rose, Sue Fernsten, Dean Hilger, Cindy Gravelle, Chas Brock, Jackie Villata, Bruce Nickerson, Bobbie Williams, Roxie Smith, John Lackey, Karen Stafford, Larry Lahman, and Steve Parry. It seems they made up a few variations of the Twist... The Towel and The Crank.

Remember! Tonight is our first big basketball game of the season against Berkeley yHigh! Be sure to come!

KQED Translator 'Could' Be Operating in Month

Students and residents alike of the central county area might be able to enjoy the educational benefits of television station KQED very soon.

This is the latest word from Bill Kimball, chairman of the committee that is attempting to raise $15,000 for installation and maintenance of a translator atop Mt. Diablo.

However, the committee still must raise at least $5000 in the next two months in order to guarantee the translator's operation here.

According to Kimball, the TV station hopes to start construction of the translator in the next week or two.

HE SAID the necessary equipment has been obtained by the station.

KQED received a permit for the translator from the Federal Communications Commission several months ago.

Larry Smith of KQED said the translator could be operating in December if everything went along as scheduled.

Gertha Brown, audio-visual TV educational consultant for the county school board, said she is planning to inform county schools that in-school broadcasting will be available in January for the second semester of the school year. She said the information will contain facts and figures on purchasing TV sets and adapting old ones to UHF.

The translator, about the size of a refrigerator, will be unmanned. Its function is to "translate" the station's VHF television waves to UHF.

The idea was first proposed because of the poor reception of the Channel 9 station in this area.

THE TRANSLATOR will guarantee good reception throughout the central county area.

Sets not equipped with UHF facilities will have to be outfitted with an adapter.

The station has estimated that it will cost a set owner anywhere from $5 to $35 to make the change.

Kimball said his committee is planning to turn over one-third of the total cost of the translator to KQED within two weeks.

The station has asked for the $5000 before starting with construction.

The rest of the money will have to be raised before the station will put the translator into operation.

At the present time, the committee has received $10,000 in pledges. Kimball hopes that the rest of the money will be pledged prior to the completion date.

Anyone wishing to find out who is the chairman for their particular area, should call Kimball at MU 5-3615.

County Nears United Crusade Drive Goal

Efforts of Contra Costa United Crusade volunteers have now pushed this county to within 21 per cent of its $280,162 goal for 1961.

According to county campaign chairman Gerald C. Stanley, gifts to this year's Crusade drive now total $220,425 — an achievement thus far of approximately 79 per cent of the county-wide quota.

Stanley said although 13 different groups in the county have exceeded their respective goals, there were still many which at present are barely past the 50 per cent mark.

"AS IN EVERY campaign, there are always those who take a 'free ride' and let their neighbor share the major responsibility of supporting Crusade agencies which actually benefit them both," Stanley commented.

"If everyone who has not as yet given to the Crusade this year were to pledge even $3, our Contra Costa drive would not only reach its goal, but would exceed it by a substantial amount," he added.

Stanley called on all volunteers to redouble their efforts in the next two weeks, and urged those who have not as yet been solicited to contact their nearest Crusade office listed in the telephone directory.

Singled out by Stanley for special commendation were the following "goal topping" groups:

RESIDENTIAL division — Orinda, under the joint chairmanship of Mrs. Hal Mead, Mrs. F. R. Devin and Mrs. Kenneth Brown now at 102 per cent of goal; Lafayette under Mrs. John Mink, 106.7 per cent; Walnut Creek under Mrs. Robert Dyer, 103.4 per cent; and Antioch with a record high of 156.3 per cent goal achieved.

Education Division — Orinda under chairman H. Z. Nyland, 105.6 per cent; Lafayette under the combined chairmanship of N. Barbieri, Mrs. M. Cunningham, P. Howard and Mrs. E. Bachelor, 109.9 per cent.

Professional Division—Health and welfare agencies (Central Contra Costa) under the chairmanship of Karl Mahler, 116.1 per cent; and Lafayette and Walnut Creek under the joint chairmanship of Loy D. Wright and Dr. L. Schneider, 172.5 per cent and 122.2 per cent respectively.

Open Every Night Starting Dec. 4

Stores in the Broadway Shopping and others in the Walnut Creek area will be open every night, Monday to Friday, beginning December 4, for evening Christmas shopping.

Until then, Broadway stores are open Monday and Friday nights, with some stores also open Thursday night.

The unincorporated area of Contra Costa County has received $21,563 as its six-month share of the annual fees and payments in compromise paid by holders of alcoholic beverage licenses in the area.

Under The Sun Come Along to Europe On The Sun Jubilee Trip

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

Would you like to go to Europe? Silly question, eh? Everyone (almost) would like to see Europe!

But is it silly? I have the travel bug, Eleanor also! If you have the travel bug, come along with us next June.

Now's the time for trumpets! (TRUMPETS!)

Europe — 28 wonderful days visiting Amsterdam, Cologne, Heidelberg, Lucerne, Innsbruck, Venice, Florence, Rome, Monte Carlo, Paris and London.

Jubilee Celebration

This is The Sun's 25th year and we can think of nothing more exciting than to go with you to Europe. Go to Europe? Sounds impossible!

Three months ago we said the same thing. Then Eleanor and I exclaimed, "Why not? People will soon be traveling to the moon! Why not Europe, which is only a few hours away by jet."

"But Europe— isn't it dreadfully expensive?" Eleanor asked.

We thought so. Then we investigated. Europe can cost a fortune or Europe can be seen comfortably, thoroughly and enjoyably for a very nominal fee.

Before deciding to sponsor a Sun European Holiday, we promised to do so only if we could offer a wonderful vacation—at a price that you could not get elsewhere.

If this weren't possible, we just wouldn't have a tour.

Planning the trip

We are not in the travel business. We will not make any money on the European jaunt. We decided to plan such a trip, exactly as we would like to do it—and again, at the best possible price.

Eleanor talked to every major international airline. She put the cards on the table: "We want the very best European Holiday for Sun Readers. What can you offer?"

After numerous discussions and at least 15 different meetings, we almost gave up.

Then she met Dan Bates who lives in Lafayette, and is KLM's representative for the Bay Area. He went to New York—and came back with a humdinger of a trip. Incidentally, KLM, Royal Dutch, is the oldest airline in the world, and one of the largest and finest.

We know you'll enjoy "the European service and food on KLM's superb DC-8 Jets, same as the planes flown by many majors.

Plenty of decisions

How long? How much? What shall we see? Travel in Europe by air or motor coach?

You'd think Eleanor and I were in the travel business, not in newspapers. We literally spent days and almost every evening for months—and then countless meetings with KLM and travel people.

We checked other newspaper tours for some answers.

Pasadena Star offered a typical trip—$1095 for 23 days, with many one-night stops and only a few days in Paris or Rome. This is about the best package we could find.

We talked to travel experts and residents who had just returned from Europe.

Almost all were unanimous in declaring that luxury motor coach was the best way. The motor coaches are excellent. You see the countryside and the people.

And the distances between most points are amazingly close, with sightseeing and stops on the way.

Would you go to Sacramento by air. If so, you'd wait at the airport, and then on landing in Sacramento an hour getting to the airport, half hour or more to an hour for luggage and the limousine to town and a cab to your hotel.

Best way to see the country

In Europe, we'd spend three to five hours on the ground—from hotel to hotel, including customs—if we flew between cities.

We will, however, fly into Amsterdam and later from Paris to London.

We take the boat trip down the Rhine and travel by express train from Florence to the Italian Riviera. Otherwise, we'll be on deluxe motor coach.

We wanted "time" in Paris and Rome that none of the other trips offered. We did not want a batch of one-night stands where you see nothing.

Our problem was solved when Dan Bates and aides presented us with this wonderful package—28 days for $1095.

This includes the same hotels, sightseeing, transportation that most tours offer for much more.

We'll have five nights in Rome, four night in Paris and at least two nights in most areas.

Eleanor and I objected to the idea of a "guided tour." We don't like to be herded around either!

Short trip by motor coach

"Remember our first trips to Mexico—we didn't buy a package tour, but when we went sightseeing we ended up in a car or coach full of sightseers." Eleanor pointed out. On another trip, we used one-third of our time figuring out schedules.

I recall a year ago in Tokyo I twice bought a "Pigeon Tour," ditto in Nikko and in Hong Kong. Also in Tahiti last May.

You can't beat a sightseeing tour if you want to see a lot in a relatively short period of time.

Wed., Nov. 29, 1961 Sun Shopping News

The Sun Holiday will be fun. Compare the price. See your nearest travel agent (he will arrange The Sun tour anyway). Check travel folders. You or he can't possibly work out such an extensive and excellent package, unless you pay many hundreds of dollars more.

Save your dimes and dollars. Come to our Travel Parties. And you will be in Europe before you know it.

How Can We Establish More Ambulance Service?

What are the chances that you, or your immediate family, will require the services of an ambulance in the foreseeable future?

Very small, we all hope, but still, the possibility must be faced.

What are your chances of getting immediate ambulance service if you live in the Central Contra Costa area?

Very good, according to statistics, but with just enough shading to raise a serious question.

IN THE FRONT section of this issue of The Sun you will find a story explaining the operation of our only local ambulance service—The Walnut Creek Ambulance Service.

For economic reasons it is presently impractical for the operator, who is a businessman, to increase his service. He now operates one full-time ambulance which can handle up to six people—three on stretchers and three sitting up.

The difficulty, of course, arises when this ambulance is out on call and a second emergency requiring an ambulance occurs.

AND REMEMBER, an emergency doesn't mean only an automobile accident... it can mean poisoning, heart attack, or a variety of accidents.

Nobody is criticizing the present ambulance operation. But the question of adequacy of coverage has been raised.

What are the alternatives? Some have suggested that an emergency service, as offered by the Orinda Fire Department with its rescue truck, would provide stop-gap service.

But this is not an ambulance service. The Orinda Fire Department will respond to emergency first aid calls, and will render first aid until an ambulance can arrive, but it is not an ambulance service. Our other fire department provide a similar service.

The biggest problem, obviously, is the financing. A second ambulance firm tried to establish itself in the central county area a few years ago, but it did not last.

THERE HAS BEEN talk of county subsidy to provide a higher level of service, but it has never gone past the talk stage.

Another proposal, which you will find in the front section, is that local fire districts subsidize an expanded program in this area.

The situation is not disastrous only because the ambulance firms, like fire departments, have a mutual aid agreement. That is, if one is on a call, and another call comes in, it is covered by the nearest available ambulance.

So far we have been quite fortunate. We have had no major disasters or accidents that required multiple ambulance service.

But the problem is with us, and sooner or later, a solution will have to be found.

The Eyes of the Area Are on Pleasant Hill

Pleasant Hill, the eyes of the unincorporated areas of the county are upon you!

If we look back over the last few years, we remember that Lafayette, Orinda, Alamo, and other areas have actually tried to bring about incorporation, and that other nearby areas such as Danville and Moraga have certainly given the idea some consideration.

Just last week the president of the Orinda Association, Bruce Howard, noted that Pleasant Hill incorporation is "a very interesting experiment."

He added, "Present indication is that considerable savings may be achieved by the Pleasant Hill community as a whole and by the taxpayers through incorporation. It will be interesting to learn just what caliber the services are and how successful."

THESE STATEMENTS echo the sentiments of many community leaders throughout the county. Even Walnut Creek, which, of course, is already a city, will be watching its new neighbor with interest.

Actually, the important item—the fact of interest to most observers—will not be what Pleasant Hill does, but how it does it.

Pleasant Hill residents will now be able to determine what services they want, and how much they wish to pay for it.

IT IS NOT so important to see whether Pleasant Hill maintains a no-tax city or not, as it is to see what kind of home-rule services the residents determine to be desirable, and then what the cost will be.

And, needless to say, this could provide a profound effect on the rest of the surrounding communities.

Must Find Right Man

The fate of the Contra Costa County Development Association will depend, ultimately on the decision as to whom will be its manager.

Jim Ritch, former newspaperman and long-time county resident, has been named acting manager following the retirement of Iona Booth.

It has been suggested that what the development association needs is a professional chamber of commerce type manager, one who is skilled in booster operations.

THIS IS IMPORTANT, because it can have a marked effect on our tax bills. The purpose of the development association is to entice industry to this county. Industry, as you know, pays the major part of our county tax bill, and the more industry we have, the better off we are as taxpayers.

Therefore it is in our interests to see that the development association acts at top efficiency.

Observers have pointed out that Jim Ritch has long been involved in county politics, and that the development association has been criticized, in the past, for taking part in county politics and taking sides in county elections.

Obviously this is an unhealthy situation; one which hinders the association in that it cannot impartially do the work for which it is designed.

Ritch can do a good job, and we are sure he will, in the interim period. And we know the development association is looking for the right man.

The Staff Corner

Teachers, Attention!

By DICK OSBORN

It seems to me that things are getting out of hand.

We hear a lot about our educational system, how fine it is, and pass bond issues, debate unification, and that sort of thing.

But what we should really concentrate on is the teacher, because without a good teacher, you simply can't have good instruction.

Now, we all know that our teachers are all accredited, have fine training, and are morally impeccable. But still, are things the way they used to be?

PERHAPS THINGS have gone too far, and we are letting our teachers get away with murder. Maybe we should return to the "good old days."

And in case you wonder what the good old days were like, consider the following list of rules for teachers posted by a principal in the City of New York in 1872.

1. Teachers each will fill lamps, clean chimneys and trim wicks.

2. Each teacher will bring a bucket of water and scuttle of coal for the day's sessions.

3. Make your pens carefully. You may whittle nibs to the individual tastes of the pupil.

4. Men teachers may take one evening each week for courting purposes, or two evenings a week if they go to church regularly.

5. After 10 hours of school, the teacher should spend the remaining time reading the Bible or other good books.

6. Women teachers who marry or engage in unseemly conduct will be dismissed.

7. Every teacher should lay aside from each pay a goodly sum of his earnings for his benefit during his declining years, so that he will not become a burden on society.

8. ANY TEACHER who smokes, uses liquor in any form, frequents pool or public halls or gets shaved in a barber shop will give good reason to suspect his worth, intentions, integrity and honesty.

9. The teacher who performs his labors faithfully and without fault for five years will be given an increase of twenty-five cents per week in his pay, providing the Board of Education approves.

So, there you have it.

We might also add, if we did go back to the "good old days," it's a safe bet that we wouldn't have many people in the teaching profession.

Perhaps we would be better off being thankful for what we have... and showing a little appreciation once in a while.

We Like It Here...

The Season of Love Is A Time to Start...

BY MARIE MONAHAN

RIGHT AFTER Thanksgiving, the symptoms are always the same. A sudden rejuvenation, a quick pulsation, a lump in the throat.

IT'S like light bulbs flashing, bells ringing, angels singing. I practically light up like a Christmas Tree.

I may not look at all that way from the outside but I assure you that inside me there's a constant music-box thing going on.

THERE isn't anything I'm NOT going to do! And thereby hangs the trouble!

SOMETHING comes over me in December... I'm going to bake every cute Christmas cookie I see... I clip recipes for Norwegian Jule Kage, German stollen, gingerbread houses & one kitchen corner is a mess of meat-to menus & ideas for putting the house & holiday table in festive attire.

Something comes over me in December. I GET LIKE a Kid all over again!

I mingle with the masses in the toy departments, get joggled in the elevators & don't mind a bit, treat the children to a special lunch without looking at the right side of the menu & traipse to San Francisco on our traditional trip to survey the store windows.

MY EYES are brighter in December. I look at everything with wide-eyed wonder of a child & I'll admit there's something about a display of dolls that downright gets me. I want to leap into Santa Claus' lap, but restraining myself brings a chuckle imagining how surprised he'd be!

Something comes over me in December... I love the sunshiny days, the nippy nights, but deep down I long for a feather-light snowfall & maybe the request for a sled or ice-skates in the Dear Santa letters.

I WANT to tramp in the woods & gather dried ferns, pods & leaves & it's just plain dangerous to be around me this month, the way I go at everything in sight with the gold spray paint.

I BUY baubles & beads, sequin & satin for any number of pretty presents I intend to make... & then forget where I hid them & have to buy them all over again.

I search the cupboards & counters for appropriate jars to house homemade fudge & stuffed dates for gifts & plan a whole day for decorating cookies with the kids.

SOMETHING comes over us in December... We want to sing & sing & think of calling our friends to join us in a caroling party... We want to listen to all our favorite records that come out of wraps for the season... & perhaps add a new one.

Come December 1st & we can't wait any longer to hear over & over The Little Drummer Boy, the Hallelujah chorus... or to play & sing at the piano the one about the Partridge in the Pear Tree... or to ope the Advent Calendar at #1.

SOMETHING comes over me in December... I stop looking at price tags, blow the budget & forget to fill out check stubs!

I want to shop with the crowds & share the rosey glow of excitement, the smile of a stranger, a greeting exchanged with a foot-weary clerk whose face I never really looked at before.

I WANT to write long notes on my cards, sign them personally with a flourish... & I like to watch people while waiting in a long line at the Post Office.

SOMETHING comes over me in December... I want time to sit in church in the middle of the day, to wander inside at will, to show our new baby the infant Jesus in the beautiful creche scene...

I want to do something, not just for my own but for somebody else's...

That's the trouble with December... It makes you want to tackle in twenty days what normally would take twelve months to do. But on the other hand, it reminds you of things you intended doing... & haven't done!

MOST OF ALL I want to do something to help keep Peace On Earth, Good Will Amongst Men... & the busiest most spiritual season of all seems the best time to start.

Those Christmas cookies just might have to wait!

Letters to The Editor

PLAUDITS

Dear Editor:

May we express our thanks to you and your staff and most especially to George Colburn, for the very excellent manner in which your publication conducted itself in the coverage of the campaign and incorporation of our new city of Pleasant Hill, California.

A publication that can conduct itself in an unbiased non-partisan manner as did the Pleasant Hill Sun deserves, in our considered opinion, the gratitude and admiration of the citizens of Pleasant Hill.

In this connection, you will find attached hereto, our check covering the continuation of our subscription to your most excellent publication.

It is our hope that you will continue to cover civic and/or other community activities of our city in just such a fashion.

We earnestly hope that soon you will be able to establish a daily publication in Pleasant Hill. This we will look forward to with a great deal of satisfaction and pleasure.

Again many thanks to you and your Pleasant Hill Sun for your assistance in the creation of our new city of Pleasant Hill, California. We earnestly hope that you may enjoy many years of success and happiness in our new community.

In closing, again please convey to George Colburn (whom we have met only four times) our best wishes and thanks, and of course, a good solid pat on the back for a job, we think, well done.

GEORGE R. STEADMAN

CO-EXISTENCE

Dear Editor:

The nutty congressman from the Los Angeles area, John Rousellot, a John Birch, says that co-existence must end! That boy is really in need of a rest for the strain must be getting too much for him.

What does he propose to do, in order to end co-existence? We're going to co-exist or not exist. That choice is pretty clear. So when the super-patriots call for more hatred, it is time to cool their hatred and psychoses with therapy.

WE SPEND a measly $2 million for a study of arms control and spend $50 billion a year for arms buildup; and we still do not have real security. Local communities turn down taxes and bonds for schools, and yet the best defense we can ever have is the best possible educational system, not a missile or rocket system.

So, let's get the Birchers out in the open! They have a right to assemble and meet and propose programs! But they do not have a right to sow seeds of suspicion and hate! Why don't we have a debate in the Walnut Creek area, with the Birchers taking this no co-existence line of argument, and some of us taking the co-existence argument. That should be a good public interest community project. How about The Sun backing such a debate?

THIS ANONYMOUS type of charge by the extremists is dangerous to all of our institutions.

A free society cannot long endure if these types of wild accusations continue without calling those responsible to prove their allegations.

Come on Birchers, out of the woodwork with you guys.

THOMAS E. KENDALL

(Ed note: Since this is primarily a political argument, how about one of the active local Democratic or Republican clubs sponsoring such a debate? Any takers?)

Under The Sun Editor Studies Situation ---At Personal Sacrifice

By HERMAN SILVERMAN

I'd do anything for you readers.

No sacrifice is too great!

Let me prove this to you.

I know that some of you are planning to go on The Sun's Jubilee Holiday to Europe; and, of course, Gay Paree is the highlight of the trip.

Thus, a most important question is posed, "Should our Reader-Travelers see the Folies Bergiere and the Lido?"

Should they take the time to do so? Should they spend the money? Yes, this is a vital problem.

So at great personal sacrifice, Eleanor and I decided to research this problem for you—at Las Vegas. We investigated the matter for two days last week.

Mission accomplished? How were the "Folies Bergiere" and "Le Lido de Paris?"

Shows were great!

Ze Answer: Magnifique! Superbe! Formidable!

(The foregoing superlatives come through the courtesy of our Berlitz French pocket dictionary.)

Both productions are really tremendous, with the edge going to Le Lido at the Stardust. Sitting at the table next to us was a man who recently visited the great Lido night club and show in Paris. He raved about the Paris show, saying there is nothing like it in the world.

At the conclusion of the Las Vegas' Lido, he said it was certainly equal to the great Parisian Lido.

The Stardust's staging is amazing—waterfalls, rainstorms, ice rinks, mobile stages, ceiling elevators. Included in this setting are great musical numbers, fabulous costuming, talented actors and—and—and lovely, lovely girls.

Well, "Girls" isn't exactly the word for these dolls. After one act, everyone knows they aren't just "girls!"

You should see it!

While the Lido wouldn't be staged at a Sunday social, it is in very good taste and something to see.

Of course, many of you have been to "Vegas" and have seen the Lido show or its two predecessors. If this column sounds a bit wide eyed, as if I've never been to Las Vegas, well—you're right. This was our first trip to the gaming capital of the world.

Having heard such glowing reports, we were not disappointed. It is a crazy, wonderful, fabulous place, offering fun, drama, luxury and excitement.

And pathos, at times. I felt awfully sorry for the "schill"—the poor men and women whose job it is to help make some of the gambling tables look less lonesome.

This writer is probably one of the world's most uninterested gamblers—and untalented as well.

(I was trying hard to lose the few bucks we allotted to help support the casinos. I couldn't do it—even brought back $4 in winnings.)

Dealer was kind

But can't say I didn't try! Playing blackjack, I threw in my cards, "Broke"—but the dealer kindly saved me as I merely had a winning 21. My addition is not too good.

I have never seen so many people having "fun"—without smiling or laughing. Vegas is a serious business and even the tourists take it seriously.

But there was no lack of laughter at the Desert Inn's late show. Danny Kaye was simply great. After two minutes on stage, he had completely captured the audience.

Our third show was the previously mentioned "Folies" at the Tropicana. Although not quite as good as the Lido, The Folies at least earns our rating of "marvelous."

If you haven't been to "Vegas" (as the veterans call it), you should go sometime. It can be a relatively inexpensive vacation—depending on you. It's certainly an experience and it's fun.

But, please don't go to Vegas just to see the Lido and the Folies!

Come with The Sun—and let's see them in Paris next summer!

Raise Funds For Lift Chair

Final parties in the Orinda Women's Club series of "Anything Goes" events are now noted upon the calendars of many residents of the Orinda-Moraga area.

These "Anything Goes" parties have been given by members of the club in order to raise funds for the group's major philanthropy project of this season, the donation of a mechanical lift chair to the Swimming for the Handicapped Program sponsored by the Red Cross and held at St. Mary's College pool.

Mrs. Bruce Hoffe, ways and means chairman for the Orinda Women's Club, states that by mid-December each member of the group will have contributed in her own way to the series of events and the project will be concluded at that time when Mrs. Robert Green, club philanthropy chairman, presents to the Red Cross the funds necessary for the purchase of this special chair.

Mrs. James Burchell of Warford Terrace entertained some of her Orinda friends with dessert and bridge in her home Wednesday evening. Her guest list included: Mesdames John Hallenbeck, Marvin Carlile, Ted Toland, Hayden Miller, Dick Gemel and Harry Polhamus.

Another example of the variety of ideas that members of the Orinda Women's Club have had for making their contributions to this project is the "Pre-schoolers' Picnic Party" which Mrs. Jack Gash gave at her home on Hillcrest Road on Monday morning. She entertained a dozen of her friends' youngsters for the morning and provided a simple picnic lunch before sending them for probable naps. Assisting her that morning was Mrs. Don Anderson, an associate member of the club.

In the first week of December, Mrs. Ray Genesey has bid a group of her Easton Court neighbors to an afternoon "get-better-acquainted" bridge and dessert.

On Wednesday morning, Mrs. Wallace Thaw has her fingers crossed for clear weather. Several of her friends and she are "artists for fun" (by Mrs. Thaw's description) and they plan to spend that morning painting and sketching the views from the Thaws' Vienne Court patio.

Her guests will include the Mesdames Emery Lillard (who has just returned from a vacation in Paris), Peyton Jacobs and Eldon Parsons (who is also a member of the Orinda Women's Club).

Opening Night--Festival Of Christmas Trees

The eleventh annual Festival of Christmas Trees sponsored by Children's Hospital of the East Bay opens tonight with a preview party at the Claremont Hotel at 6:30 p.m.

Admission for tonight's first view of the dazzling trees, made by members of the various hospital branches, is $2.50.

Beginning tomorrow and continuing through Thursday, the trees and decorations will be on display from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily. Admission is $1 for adults and 25 cents for children under 12.

Many trees, dazzling, original and just plain pretty, will be on sale at the festival. Members of the hospital branches from all over the Bay Area have spent hours and even days creating these trees for the benefit of the hospital's part-pay program.

This program, by underwriting a portion of medical expenses, assists thousands of children from families of limited financial means.

Although trees and decorations will be on sale each day of the showing, including preview night, all must remain on display until the Festival closes.

Rare "fruit" hangs from the tree made by Mrs. Raymond Wehle of Orinda for Jasmine Branch. Mrs. Wehle twisted copper wire to form a gnarled fruit tree. She attached leaves cut from disposable pizza pie tins to the boughs and used a handful of rare, foreign coins for the tree's "crop."

All natural materials were used by Mrs. Robert Sherman of Lafayette and Rowan Branch to create her "nature tree." She glued small pine cones, pods and acorns onto a large cone, and sprayed the whole thing gold.

Nature also inspired the tree entered by Ailanthus Branch, but in a slightly different manner. Whimsical carved wooden insects, playing musical instruments, march on a manzanita branch decorated by Sue Fernsten of Orinda.

BRIGHT-EYED. Mrs. Robert Sherman of Lafayette and her daughter, Sandra, hold the "nature tree" created for the annual Festival of Christmas Trees opening tonight at 6 p.m. with a preview at the Claremont Hotel. The festival is sponsored annually by Children's Hospital of the East Bay. The tree displayed here is a contribution of Rowan Branch. Trees and decorations will be on sale through Thursday.

Curator Will Speak To D.A.R.

Acalanes Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will meet Monday at 12:30 p.m. for dessert at the home of Mrs. Roy J. Heffner of 1091 Brown Avenue, Lafayette, with Mrs. James Medaugh serving as co-hostess.

Dr. Clarence Ridenbach will address regents and members today when the Northern California Council will convene at a luncheon meeting at the Claremont Hotel in Berkeley.

The local chapter is joining other Bay Area chapters in making a special donation of trees to reforest 65 acres of northern California watershed recently destroyed by fire.

Larks Reveal Names of New Officers

The Lafayette Larks Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center announced the names of the new executive board at a recent meeting in the home of Mrs. J. E. Menz.

Succeeding Mrs. K. S. Welch as president is Mrs. J. E. Menz. Mrs. Sherman Sibley will be vice-president; Mrs. M. H. Binker, recording secretary; Mrs. R. D. Wootton, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Harley Cook, treasurer.

Jacksons Make Home In Orinda

At home in Orinda after a Carmel honeymoon, are the Stanley G. Jacksons, who were married by Reverend Chauncey Blossom in November nuptials at the Orinda Community Church.

The bride is the former Doris Held Scott, daughter of Henry L. Held of Berkeley. She was given marriage by her father and attended by her daughter, Terry Scott.

For the afternoon ceremony, the bride wore a street length dress of eggshell silk crepe trimmed in mink, a small matching mink hat, eggshell gloves and slippers and a nosegay of brown-tipped ivory colored orchids.

Michael Wescott of Kensington was best man and the bride's brothers, Henry Held of Berkeley and Richard Held of Orinda, were the ushers.

Following a reception at the Alameda Naval Air Station, the couple left for a Carmel honeymoon from which they have just returned to reside at the bride's former home on Camino Del Cielo in Orinda.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Jackson having been widowed, came home to a full house of five children, three of hers and two of his. Mrs. Irene Jackson of Everett Avenue in Oakland is the benedict's mother.

Jan Miller Is Chosen Queen

Miss Jan Miller of Orinda, Kappa Kappa Gamma at the University of Oregon, was crowned Swamp Queen recently by Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity at their annual "Swamp Stomp."

Both Miss Miller and Miss Darby Trainer of Lafayette were chosen by the fraternity to compete for the honor of being queen at the dance.

Coin Trees, 'Nature' Trees Point Up Annual Festival

Money "grows" on trees for Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

At least, it's the valuable crop on the tree entered by Jasmine Branch in the Festival of Christmas Trees. The event, sponsored each year by all the hospital branches, will be held today through December 7 at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont.

Jasmine Branch's "Christmas tree" is a gnarled fruit tree created by Mrs. Raymond Wehle of Orinda, from copper wire. She twisted the wire to form the weathered branches and attached aluminum leaves, cut from a disposable pizza pan.

Hanging from the boughs are a handful of small, and rare copper coins. This glistening display is about 18 inches tall, and would be an ideal decoration for the room or study of the family coin collector, Mrs. Wehle says.

More than 150 original and unusual trees will be on display at the gala exhibition, which opens with a benefit preview on Friday, December 1. For those who like Christmas as "conversation pieces," there are displays created from imaginative materials in rare styles.

For example, Mrs. Arthur L. Lundblad of Orinda used an old wine bottle to create a stunning exhibit for Lombardi Branch. She has completely covered the bottle with pine cones in various sizes, sprinkling a bit of glitter here and there.

For Lombardi's second entry, Mrs. Lundblad is using a real tree, but a unique style of trimming. The branches of the tree will be laden with artificial snow, but free of ornaments except for a few chandelier-prism icicles. Silver balls in graduated sizes will be wound around the trunk of the tree, starting with the largest balls at the bottom.

For those who prefer their Christmas decorations "just plain pretty," there's a "nature tree" designed by Mrs. Robert Sherman of 1037 Via Nueva, Lafayette, for Rowan Branch. Mrs. Sherman glued acorns, acorn seeds and small pine cones on a giant cone (about 1½ feet long) and sprayer the entire display with shimmering gilt. She then set the tree in a brass candle holder, to create a completely golden tree.

Real greens were arranged on a styrofoam tree shape by Mrs. J. S. Holliday of Lafayette to create a "Della Robbia Tree" for Heather Branch. Mrs. Holliday says she believes that natural materials are a nice change from Christmas tinsel. A combination of these resulted in her wood-hued display. She used mostly natural trimmings—lemon leaves, eucalyptus seeds, brown acorns, and pods. The few artificial ornaments, diminutive birds made of cotton with brightly-colored tails, and tiny angels with painted wooden faces, yarn hair, and red and green cone-shaped skirts, blend with the natural colors in her creation. Mrs. Eugene Lee of Lafayette helped Mrs. Holliday gather the materials and construct the three-foot tall "tree."

All the trees described, and dozens more, will be sold during the festival to benefit the part-pay program at Children's Hospital of the East Bay. This program provides medical assistance for thousands of children from families of limited financial means.

Holiday ornaments and gifts also will be displayed and sold during the festival.

Tickets for preview night are $2.50 each and may be obtained from the office of the branches, 731 52nd Street, Oakland 9, or from branch members. Admissions for the remainder of the festival are $1 for adults and 25 cents for children.

The festival will be open from 6 p.m. to midnight on preview night, and from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. daily through Thursday, December 7.

Jasmine Wins Award at Exhibit Tea

Jasmine Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay, edged out competition to win a coveted first place at the 24th annual exhibit tea staged by the hospital branches last week at Berkeley's Hotel Claremont.

Jasmine's winning circus booth featured a red and white theme. A red and white paper awning topped the display. A dark green backdrop provided contrast for the circus wall hangings, featuring clown faces, displayed against it.

Clown dolls arrayed on the red table top competed for attention with the branch members who, dressed as clowns themselves, mingled with the crowd to call attention to their booth.

Hospital Auxiliary Sets $75,000 As Goal

Responsibility for raising $75,000 by mid-February for John Muir Memorial Hospital has been undertaken by the hospital auxiliary, under the direction of its president, Mrs. Harold C. Bates of Moraga.

Upon learning that the Hill-Burton award for two-thirds of the $4,000,000 cost of a 150-bed John Muir Memorial Hospital will lapse unless another $300,000 is contributed locally, executive council representatives of all twelve auxiliary guilds unanimously voted to assume responsibility for the $75,000 division, which is comprised of all donations under $1000 from individuals other than doctors.

Sparked by this "golden opportunity" to build the hospital three times its originally planned size, the enthusiasm of nearly 400 John Muir Memorial Hospital auxiliary members is making itself felt in a variety of coordinated campaign activities in central Contra Costa County.

First venture in this ambitious new undertaking was auxiliary sponsorship or an evening public information rally in Walnut Creek, with entertainment, music and refreshments.

The young organization, which recently fulfilled a three-year pledge of $15,000 for the hospital nursery in just 18 months, at a recent rally presented an additional $6500 in demonstration of its support in the campaign.

The award was made by Mrs. Bates to Alfred B. Layton of Diablo, hospital board finance committee chairman leading the intensive, time-limited drive.

In addition to soliciting contributions for building, the auxiliary is helping with public information, posters, and other promotional work.

Prep Basketball Teams Prepare for Season

PLEASANT HILL—The two young men shown with Coach Art Poulin will be the key to the Rams' basketball fortunes this winter. Glen Graham (left) and Al Oxley were both letter winners on last year's squad. Both players are senior forwards. Last season the Rams compiled a 6-6 record in league play and were 11-9 over all.

Sun photos by Bob Rush.

COLLEGE PARK—Experience from the school of hard knocks is about all the Falcons gained last season as they finished with a 1-19 record in the school's first year of varsity competition. Coach Jack Bonnickson has the squad back in full and plans for better things this year. Front row, from left to right: Coach Bonnickson, Art Miller, Dennis Waller, Bobby Roberts. Back row, left to right: Roger Mower, Mickey Sytkowski, Don Wilson, Steve Kubasek.

DEL VALLE—The high school without a senior class enters into its first season of varsity basketball competition tonight under Coach Doug Pederson. The team compiled a 16-3 junior varsity record and the squad is back intact. Four of last year's seven letter winners are pictured here. From left to right: Randy Quadros, Dave Anderson, Coach Pederson, Mal Cameron and Bob Kovats. Missing are Bill O'Toole, Dan Reading and John Colwell.

San Ramon Hands Falcons 19th Loss in Row, 49-34

San Ramon opened its basketball season in impressive style, easily defeating College Park, 49-34.

Don Rice, Bob Metez and Jim Howell combined for 42 of the Wolves' points as the host club broke open a tight game in the second quarter.

After an even opening stanza ended in a 12-12 deadlock, the Wolves paced by Metez, a guard, outscored the Falcons, 13-4, to gain a 25-16 bulge at halftime.

METEZ, who wound up with seven field goals and a free throw, hit on four jump shots in the second round. He personally doubled the output of the entire College Park team in that quarter.

The Wolves added a finishing burst of 15 points in the final quarter after an even third period to win going away.

Rice led all scorers with 16 points. He had five field goals and six free throws.

Metez followed with 15 points while Howell, 6-4 center, had 11 points on four goals and three charity tosses.

Forward Art Miller paced the Falcons in a losing cause with 12 points.

The loss for College Park was 100 yards.

its 19th in a row. They finished with an overall 1-19 mark last year in the school's first varsity season.

SAN RAMON could win only times in 20 tries last year and had just one win in FAL competition.

Both teams hoped to make comebacks this year with College Park's full team back and San Ramon bolstered by seven letter winners.

San Ramon will be shooting for win No. 2 tonight in its own invitational tourney while the Falcons hope to break that losing habit at Las Lomas, also this evening.

Von Tagen Breaks Swim Records

Two intra-mural swimming records have been broken by University of Idaho freshman Karl von Tagen, son of Mr. and Mrs. William von Tagen, 1329 Ivy Court, Walnut Creek.

Von Tagen, a former Las Lomas High swimming star, was timed at 24.2 seconds in the 50-yard event, and 55.9 seconds in the 100 yards.

Acalanes Edges Vallejo in Two Overtimes, 31-30

Acalanes opened its 1961-62 basketball style in winning, if not impressive style Tuesday afternoon, defeating Vallejo, 31-30, in double overtime on the Dons' home court.

Forward Bill Hayes hit on a free throw with five seconds to play in the second overtime to give the Dons their margin of victory.

Hayes was fouled in a mid-court scramble after Vallejo had tied the score at 30-30. He hit on the first toss of his one and one situation. The visitors grabbed the rebound from his second shot, but could not get a shot off in the final seconds.

CENTER Bill Higgins was an earlier hero for the Dons. Trailing 26-25 in the last minute, Higgins was fouled in the act of shooting. With 51 seconds to play, he missed his first free throw and when a Vallejo player grabbed off the rebound and headed upcourt, the referee let the play go.

Eleven seconds had elapsed before the error was admitted and Higgins called back to the free throw line.

This time he connected on the charity toss, tying the score at 26-26.

Vallejo took the ball out of bounds and immediately had a traveling violation called on one of their guests.

The Dons stalled waiting for the last shot, but with three seconds left, Hayes had to force an attempt and he didn't even come close to the rim.

In the first overtime, guard John Paul Jones put the Dons in front with a jump shot. However, reserve guard Jess Williams of Vallejo tied the score with a pair of free throws.

Higgins and Hayes both hit single free throws in the second overtime to put the Dons two-up again.

Williams then scored the equalizer on a driving layup to set the stage for Hayes' clutch free throw.

JONES led all scorers with 12 points. He had five field goals. His running mate at guard, Walt Cardinet, had three baskets and a pair of free throws while Hayes had one basket and four important free throws.

Acalanes' first game mistakes were many and they seemed to rub off on the visitors who had two impressive wins behind them already.

Both teams were way off the mark in the shooting department and officials had a busy time calling the many traveling and dribbling violations. It took the teams more than four minutes to get a field goal at the start of the game. Neither team scored more than nine points in a quarter.

Vallejo's front line, although much taller than Dons, could not take advantage of their height despite definite control of the boards.

THE DONS will have a chance to brush up on fundamentals in the next week, however. Their next game is next Friday night against Antioch at home.

Coach Bert Barnett thought his boys beat a good club although Vallejo was performing like just the opposite was true.

He was quite happy that they had won the game, even though it wasn't a championship performance.

DVC Opens Basketball Play Tonight

The Diablo Valley College Varsity basketball team will open their 1961-62 season tonight when they host the College of Marin in the Vik gym. Tipoff time is 8 p.m.

After many weeks of preparation, including a few scrimmages against tough city-league teams, coach Charlie Karp is looking forward to a very successful season. Karp's troops have had little trouble in downing Mattson's Creamery of Concord once and Texaco of Pittsburg twice.

DVC finished fifth in the seven-team league last season with an 8-6 record.

The Vikings' overall record was 12-12 last year.

"This year's outlook is much better than that of last season. There is much more height and depth, especially at the guard spots, as well as more speed," Karp said.

As of now, the guard positions are being held down by two veterans, Scott Crenshaw, Concord; and George Smylie, Pittsburg.

The depth at the guard spot is very good as Rex Bankhead, Concord; a frosh; Sam Coston, Pittsburg; a frosh; and Rick Scott, Walnut Creek, a frosh, are all in contention and should see plenty of action during the year.

Dick Dole, of Pleasant Hill, a freshman, and John Coffey, Orinda; also a first year man, are battling for the center spot.

There is also a battle for the two forward positions. Ranie Smith, Pittsburg, a veteran, seems to have one spot sewed up while others vying for a spot are Tom Nichols, Walnut Creek, and Jim Addington, Concord, both freshmen; and Gerry Sheehan, Concord, a second year man.

The Ski Line

Be Safe, Be Sure---and You'll Enjoy Skiing More

By HEC HANCOCK

To paraphrase an old Air Force saying of the late unpleasantness: "There are hot skiers, and there are old skiers. However, there aren't any old hot skiers."

I think the implication is clear enough and you don't have to be beat around the head and shoulders to get the point. In brief, those boomers that insist upon skiing without due caution, and beyond their ability, are almost a cinch to eventually crash and burn.

Blessed with an early snowfall, the ski season got off to a running start over the Thanksgiving weekend. Spurred on by the usual overly optimistic eagerness, a goodly multitude of red-hots made the trek to the Sierra. Only Heavenly Valley and Squaw Valley had snow in sufficient quantity for skiing, however.

With only about a foot of pack, the rocks and brush are at best only partially covered. Many more rocks and logs are covered by a thin veneer of snow of perhaps an inch or two. Skiing under these conditions is, to say the least, hazardous to life, limb and equipment.

THIS certainly isn't the time to ski wide open. The smart skier (the term isn't incompatible) takes advantage of the early pack to practice his turns, get the necessary timing down, and gets his ski legs under him. This is the time for young and old alike to work on fundamentals.

Conditioning is the key word for those that would look forward to a long and successful ski season. Calisthenics can easily be a pain in the neck. However, since the average person's legs have many of the characteristics of a jellyfish, pre-season conditioning is absolutely essential. Essential, that is, if you wish to get the maximum enjoyment from your time on the slopes.

Set yourself up a program that includes deep knee bends, with and without weights, and any of the many exercises suggested by the ski magazines and books. Five to ten minutes each and every day will pay off in big dividends during the season.

The smart skier is also sure that his equipment is top condition. Don't try to cut corners on equipment, the price can be too high. Ski shops affiliated with the Northern California Ski Dealers Association are pledged to provide quality equipment and service.

WORD FROM DODGE RIDGE is that they will be opening in the very near future.

A new chairlift has been constructed that has a capacity of handling as many skiers as the existing chairlift and poma lift in the East Bowl combined. The new lift is 3300 feet long, rising vertically, 950 feet.

Dodge Ridge has several excellent films available to all interested groups, clubs and organizations free of charge. Films available are "Skiing Wonderland," "Winter Wonderland," "Let's Ski" and "Dodge Ridge Ski School." Those desiring further information should phone Friside 5-7763 in San Mateo.

The Mt. Diablo Ski Club, off to another successful season, will conduct a showing of the ski movie, "High Skis," Saturday night at Acalanes gym. Tickets can be obtained at the door.

Fast-Growing Aquabears to Hold Swim Meet

The second annual Aquabear team Challenge Swim Meet will be held tomorrow at the Miramonte High School pool starting at 10 a.m.

Members of the public are cordially invited to attend. There will be no charge for admission.

The Aquabears team, which was formed last year, competed this summer in a series of AAU swim meets in Northern California, and before the close of the season, had earned a reputation as one of the strongest age group swimming teams from this area. Under the direction of Laurabelle Bookstaver, its members won over 900 medals and ribbons during competitive meets. Many Pacific AAU records were also set by team members.

The team, sponsored by a group of Contra Costa County and Berkeley parents, consisted of 22 swimmers when it was formed last fall. By the middle of last summer 50 youngsters had joined the team, and as a result of tryouts held this fall, 95 swimmers now belong to this growing organization.

Dr. Frank Schnugg, Orinda, is president of the executive committee; Norman Hawker, vice president; Mrs. Margaret Jacobberger, treasurer, and Mrs. Betty Boulware is secretary.

Director for tomorrow's swim meet is Palmer York, Jr., Orinda and other officials include: Don Nesbit and Marland Chandler, both of Lafayette; Tom Traumer, Alamo; Roger Jacoby, Berkeley; Thornton Savage, Mrs. Betty Boulware and Percy Dawson, all of Orinda.

Las Lomas Wins Wrestling Opener

Las Lomas High School opened its wrestling season with a 31-12 win over Antioch last week. The Knights junior varsity also won, 34-19.

Basketball in Full Swing Tonight

Las Lomas, Mats Home; Wolves Host Tourney

By GEORGE COLBURN
Sports Editor

The prep basketball season moves into full swing this evening with six of the local teams in action. Only Acalanes, a 31-30 double overtime winner Tuesday, is not in action tonight.

In Danville, San Ramon hosts the first annual San Ramon Invitational Basketball Tournament.

Games will be played tonight and tomorrow night at 7 and 8:30.

Tonight at 7, St. Mary's of Berkeley meets Amador of Pleasanton. In the second contest, San Ramon meets Galileo of San Francisco.

Tomorrow night, the two losers meet at 7 p.m. while the two winners clash for the championship at 8:30.

THE WOLVES opened their season in impressive style Tuesday afternoon, easily defeating College Park, 49-34, and seem ready for tournament play.

However, they'll get plenty of competition from St. Mary's and Galileo for the tourney crown.

St. Mary's already has four wins under its belt, the latest a 65-50 win over Harry Ells. Other victims have been Castlegnolli and forward Rick Inman back from last year's varsity. The other positions on the floor and on the bench will have to be filled with JV and Bee players.

THE FALCONS, who were 1-19 last year and lost 18 in a row made it 19 straight this week in losing to San Ramon.

Last year's low-scoring squad is back intact for their senior year and Coach Jack Bonnickson is hoping they perk up after their let-down performance Tuesday.

Miramonte opens its 1961-62 campaign tonight against Berkeley in Orinda.

Graduations have hurt Miramonte's chances this season, also. Coach Herb Graw lost FAL leading scorer Jack Gilbert, and many other regulars.

Like Las Lomas, Graw has only three lettermen back and only one, Mike McQuaid, saw much action.

Graw has one consolation last year the Matadors' Bee team won nine of 10 games and at least two of the players will be seeing plenty of action tonight.

OPENING the season on the road this evening are Del Valle and Pleasant Hill.

For Del Valle, it will be their first-ever varsity basketball game when they face Skyline. Pleasant Hill opens its season at Livermore.

The Rams lost their two best players via graduation, but the Rams have Al Oxley and Glen Graham, last year's starting forwards back for another year.

Speck, Foster, Bray Are CCD All-League Choices

Pleasant Hill placed two players on the Contra Costa Division all-league football team while College Park had one first team selection.

The Rams placed tackle Chuck Bray and fullback Tom Foster on the first team while College Park's Loran Speck was rated the league's best quarterback.

Pleasant Hill's fine quarterback, Nelson Shelton, was a second team selection. Halfback Dave Clark also made the second team.

College Park tackle Ron Boeger earned a spot on the second squad, also.

Champion Pittsburg High had four players on the first team. Three of the Pirates, halfback Albert Lea, tackle Anthony Buccellato and guard Larry Topping were unanimous choices of the league coaches.

Guard Ron Benotti is the other Pirate on the first squad. End Rich Clough of Mt. Diablo was the only other unanimous pick.

Lea is the only junior on the first team. Clayton Valley halfback Gordy Martindale fills out the first team backfield.

The complete teams:
FIRST TEAM
Ends—Rich Clough, Mt. Diablo; Ron Sbrani, Antioch.

Tackles—Chuck Bray, Pleasant Hill; Anthony Buccellato, Pittsburg.

Guards—Ron Benotti, Pittsburg; Larry Topping, Pittsburg. Center—Ron Boyle, Mt. Diablo.

Halfbacks—Albert Lea, Pittsburg; Gord Martindale, Clayton Valley.

Fullback—Tom Foster, Pleasant Hill.

SECOND TEAM

Fullback—Dave Jones, Mt. Diablo.

mont, Encinal and Bishop Armstrong at Sacramento. They have lost once.

Galileo is rated as a top team in the San Francisco Athletic Association and has to be ranked a tournament co-favorite. Three all-leaguers will be in Galileo's starting lineup.

Amador, a member of the DVAL East Bay Division, had a poor season last year and opened the present campaign with a 50-0 loss to Arroyo Tuesday.

ANOTHER clash tonight brings together Las Lomas, last season's Foothill League champion, and College Park, the Contra Costa Division's tail-enders last year.

Graduations have taken much of last year's strength from the Knights. Coach Ed Strelow makes his debut as head coach tonight for the Knights and he will have to bank heavily on Bob Nichols, returning all-league forward.

The 6-3 Nichols is the only starter left from last year's championship team—however he's a good player to have come back.

Without him the Knights probably would be a less-than-average team. However, with him around it's hard to tell prior to game No. 1.

It will be interesting to see what Strelow does with his other material.

He has only guard Greg Ber-

Sandbag Priorities Told

A policy for emergency sandbag operations in event of winter flooding has been reaffirmed by the Contra Costa supervisors.

The policy was adopted in 1959 and reaffirmed each year since then.

The policy is as follows:

"FIRST PRIORITY shall be given by county forces to the protection of its highways, bridges and public buildings and other public works, and to the prevention of inundation on an area basis."

"Any available residual resources shall be utilized to provide sandbag protection to properties on an individual basis."

"Sandbag protection to private properties shall be coordinated under the control of the disaster office director in lieu of the past arrangement whereby the public works department and the sheriff's department separately conducted sandbag programs."

Will H. Perry, Jr., director of the county disaster office announced that the flood fight council established three years ago was reactivated last week to coordinate county government planning in the event of winter floods.

representatives of public works, of the sheriff's department, the communications division of the sheriff's department, and the flood control and water conservation department.

The council convenes upon call of the director of the disaster office to evaluate information and reports pertaining to flood or threatened flood conditions within the county, and to decide on necessary action.

Only once last winter was it necessary to call a meeting of the council.

Copies of the "Do-It-Yourself Flood Fight Information Bulletin" are available upon request from Perry's office. The bulletin was published in March, 1959 and contains information and diagrams of methods to protect property in advance of flood conditions.

Also available for showing to interested groups is the film "When Water Is the Enemy," filmed in color in Contra Costa County.

It portrays various methods by which a person or business can protect property against flood waters as explained in the flood fight bulletin.

"Two easy ways to serve a good, hot breakfast that's nutritious and good to eat," says Betty Crocker.

It takes only 2-to-3 minutes to cook your family a stick-to-the-ribs breakfast with these hot cereals from General Mills. They offer other health benefits, too.

Protein Plus combines the full, rich goodness of two important grains — oats and wheat — to give you good taste and good nutrition. That includes plenty of protein — natural, full strength protein. Protein Plus actually contains as much protein as meat and milk. And the flavor is delightful.

Hot Toasted 40% Bran is the only cereal that provides all the natural benefits of bran, and at the same time gives you a nourishing hot breakfast. And the flavor is delicious — a "country kitchen" flavor like the robust stone-ground cereals of the old days.

Try one of these unique hot cereals for breakfast soon. Remember, as Betty Crocker says:

"You and your family need a good, healthy breakfast to start you on your way... And the healthier your breakfast, the happier your day."

Realtors to Dine, Dance At Castlewood Tuesday

Castlewood Country Club will be the scene Tuesday for the annual Contra Costa Real Estate Board's annual Christmas party. Murray explained that due to the cancellation of the annual mas party would be a combination of all the awards and gaiety planned for that event, as well as the annual Yuletide festival. Members of the board and their guests will convene at Castlewood at 7 p.m. A temporary dinner of New York cut steak, tossed green salad, potato, vegetables, apple pie with cheese will be served. Dancing, 7 p.m. 'til the wee hours, will be to the music of Henry Gallagher and his 14 piece orchestra. "We are going all out to make this the best party ever," Murray said. "Dinner, dancing, and all the trimmings are available for $5," he added. Deadline for ticket reservations is today. Tickets may be obtained from any member of the ticket committee. Commercial arrangements will be under the supervision of the women's division, Lynn Grace, president.

Doorbells Ringing

Doorbells are ringing in the central county, as volunteers seek more than $5000 in donations for muscular dystrophy research programs.

Junior women's clubs of the area are providing most of the volunteers who will visit local homes in the daytime and evening. The drive will end Sunday night.

The $5000 goal for this area is included in the county's overall goal of $18,000, said Mrs. Donald Carson of Walnut Creek, the campaign chairman for Eastern Contra Costa.

The volunteers will carry their ification. The local headquarters is at 1287 Boulevard Way, Walnut Creek.

"Funds raised will go to find a cure for the disease which kills many youngsters and adults. The funds will also provide muscular dystrophy clinics, therapy, orthopedic equipment, counseling, transportation of patients and family service," said Mrs. Carson.

Typical costs which must be undertaken by muscular dystrophy programs include the following: hospitalization, $30 per day; visits to muscular dystrophy clinics, $6.50 per visit; therapy, $6 hour.

Wheel chairs, $200 each; lifts, $250 each; braces, $50 per pair; camperships, $47 per child for two weeks.

Chapter services include family counseling, transportation and recreational outings.

School Children Must Have Polio Immunizations

Dr. Henrik Blum, county health officer, noted recently that over 70,000 school children will need to start polio immunization shots within the next two months.

This is because the new state polio law requires that any student (minor or adult) must be immunized for polio, unless it conflicts with his personal belief.

The law will affect 150,000 pupils in Contra Costa County.

AFTER JANUARY, any new student entering any Contra Costa School must have had at least one polio injection to be admitted to the school, and a total of three injections must be completed within a year.

This, of course, does not affect children now attending school.

However, Dr. Blum said, continuing students must have begun their series of shots before the fall semester starts next September. He said they should be started now.

In order to make it easier for parents, letters and individual immunization records will be sent home from school with each student.

This letter will explain the program and suggest when to obtain needed immunizations.

IMMUNIZATIONS are best obtained from private physicians, Dr. Blum said, because permanent records are kept. However, the county does maintain immunization clinics which are held at regular intervals.

At present these clinics are held on the fourth Wednesday of each month at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, 1720 Oakland Boulevard, Walnut Creek, and on the second Tuesday of each month at the Health Department Clinic, 1750 Oak Park Boulevard, Pleasant Hill.

Foster Home Discussion Is Scheduled

The Foster Home Information Group will meet next Friday at 8 p.m. in the Pacific Gas and Electric Company Auditorium, 1535 Bonanza Street, Walnut Creek.

The meeting is open to the public and there is no obligation to persons attending.

Monthly meetings have been sponsored by the Central Contra Costa Council of Churches for the last year and a half to acquaint the public with the needs of children and young people who cannot live in their own homes.

There are at all times 35 to 50 children in the County Juvenile Hall and Shelter Homes, infants to 16 years of age, who need a foster home.

Panel members next Friday will be Mrs. Eleanor Wilson, probation department representative; Mrs. Culver Williams, Walnut Creek, committee member; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Price, foster parents.

The Price family have been licensed for the past two years and have three foster children at the present covering a wide age range.

Car Runs Wild; WC Paint Store Is Victimized

A paint store at 1322 Locust Street in Walnut Creek was the victim of a runaway car late last Wednesday afternoon that caused plenty of property damage, but no personal injury.

Egidio Linotti of 3201 Ortega Street, Lafayette, was behind the wheel of the car, but even he was at a loss to explain what happened.

With his wife as a passenger, Linotti stopped at the curb in front of the store.

Suddenly, the car reared forward, went over the curb, knocked down the parking meter and proceeded forward through the plate glass window of the store.

The runaway auto finally came to rest near the back of the store when it hit a large counter.

Walnut Creek police officers said no one in the car or the store was injured.

Store owners did not estimate the extent of the damage.

Pedestrian Deaths Are Up 11% in the State

Pedestrian deaths in California are up 11 per cent over last year, Captain Jelich, commander of the California Highway Patrol's Concord Area, said this week.

"And the tragic fact is that more than one-third of the 514 deaths recorded during the first eight months of 1961 were persons 65 and older.

"These fall days are particularly hazardous for the pedestrian because earlier darkness and unfavorable weather conditions tend to reduce the driver's visibility.

"The older person is especially susceptible to an accident because he may take a few seconds longer crossing a street, and he is unable to react as quickly if an automobile suddenly appears.

"Both drivers and pedestrians have a responsibility to exercise additional caution," the captain said. "Drivers should be alert to the danger of reduced visibility, particularly at night when pedestrians are difficult to see.

"Persons walking along a roadway should always face traffic, wear light or brightly-colored clothing, and if possible, carry a light.

"When crossing streets, pedestrians should be certain that approaching drivers see them before stepping into a traffic lane."

Business Girls Have Heart Problems, Too

In a research investigation supported by the Contra Costa and Alameda County Heart Associations, it was found that ambitious, competitive deadline-haunted business women, like males with the same characteristics, are far more likely to have heart attacks than their less aggressive sisters.

This research finding was reported by Drs. Ray N. Rosenman and Meyer Friedman of the Harold Brunn Institute, Mt. Zion Hospital, San Francisco, in the current issue of "Circulation," the scientific journal of the American Heart Association.

Drs. Rosenman and Friedman's studies on 257 selected women are part of a long-range investigation of the correlation between the incidence of heart attacks and certain behavior characteristics.

A group of 125 women was selected by their own associates in business and social life as being particularly aggressive, hard-driving, and involved in business deadlines.

This group was compared to another group of 132 women chosen for their more relaxed way of life.

A number of the women queried were from Contra Costa County.

Both groups were ostensibly healthy, mentally and physically. However, the physicians found evidences of high blood pressure, hardening of the arteries, high levels of blood fats, and other signs of incipient heart disease were four times more frequent among the ambitious hard-driving women than among the passive-relaxed group.

Dystrophy Drive Starts

The annual Muscular Dystrophy campaign has begun in Contra Costa County, and will continue through Sunday.

Volunteers are ringing doorbells, identifying themselves by the Jerry Lewis MDA kits.
